WHAT IS TODAY ALL ABOUT?

In today's Be Internet Awesome event student's, teachers and parents will be participating together in lessons, lectures and other activities. You will have the possibility to interact with each other and to participate in activities prepared by the lecturers using chat.
In order to have everything going efficiently and according to plan, and to make it a pleasant experience for everyone, we kindly ask you to read and apply a few rules.

REMEMBER, NOTHING IS PRIVATE ONLINE

You are not anonymous on the Internet. Our event will be attended by students and teachers all over the country, and sometimes also from abroad. The recording will be also available on social media: Facebook and YouTube. Keep this in mind when writing your comment.

PAY ATTENTION TO THE LANGUAGE YOU USE

Try to use proper grammar, spelling and punctuation. This will make your message more readable and understandable. DON'T YELL! But most of all, do not use inappropriate words and icons - they will be removed, and you might get a ban!

DON'T SPAM

Use the chat only to share comments on the topic of the activity and in accordance with the instructions of the lecturers. Re-read the message before you post it - remember that sending incomplete messages one by one may also be considered as spamming.

BE KIND

Most importantly - let's take care of a friendly atmosphere. Be kind and respectful to other chat users, treat them like you would like to be treated yourself!
